Call for Applications for Nathanson Graduate Fellowships

In 2017-2018, the Jack & Mae Nathanson Centre on Transnational Human Rights, Crime and Security plans to award up to six Nathanson Graduate Fellowships to meritorious graduate students enrolled fulltime in the Osgoode Hall Law School LLM (thesis-based or MRP) or PhD programme, or in a York University masters or doctoral programme. Previous recipients of Nathanson Fellowships are eligible, but preference will be given to first-time applicants. Due to Ontario Government funding regulations, only Canadian citizens/landed immigrants who are also Ontario residents are eligible.

Nathanson Graduate Fellows will be leading doctoral or masters students with a keen interest in the activities of the Nathanson Centre and pursuing a thesis, MRP, or dissertation on a topic that falls within the Nathanson Centre mandate (see <http://nathanson.osgoode.yorku.ca>). Fellows will be expected to participate actively in the collegial activities of the Centre, in a way symbiotic with their research and their training for possible careers in the academy. From time to time, fellows will also have opportunities to volunteer their time and ideas in ways that contribute to the endeavours of the Centre and its associate researchers.

The fellowships are tenable during the 2017-2018 academic year. Pursuant to the funding policies of the Faculty of Graduate Studies for 2017-2018, they are valued as follows:

Masters Students: The amount of the Fellowship for Masters students is $7000, over and above any other funding received by successful applicants.

Doctoral Students: The amount of the Fellowship for Doctoral Students is $10,000.

Fellows are also entitled to use the common room and common work spaces of the Nathanson Centre (when not otherwise booked for events), and to book its meeting room for purposes related to the Centre.

Applicants should forward by email (1) a cover letter, (2) an up-to-date CV, and (3) a description (not exceeding 500 words) of their current or planned thesis, MRP, or dissertation topic to the Nathanson Centre, c/o Ms. Lielle Gonsalves at lgonsalves@osgoode.yorku.ca, by 3 pm, Monday, September 11, 2017. Upon the receipt of applications, each applicant will receive by email a Student Financial Profile, which must be filled out and sent back by email no later than 3 pm, Wednesday, September 13, or within a day of receipt, whichever is later.
