

Gajindra Maharaj, Assistant Professor, School of Administrative Studies, LA&PS

My research examines how accounting, in combination with societal factors is used to shape our understanding and view of global and social events. Issues such as money laundering, fraud, corruption, and business ethics are just a few of the areas of concern.

<https://profiles.laps.yorku.ca/profiles/gajindra/>